

CDF NEWS RELEASE

California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection

CONTACT:

Karen Terrill or Katie Facino
CDF Public Information Officer
(916) 653-5123

RELEASE
DATE:

December 7, 2001

Holiday Safety News Event

Fire Officials and Consumer Product Experts Warn of Concerns this Holiday Season

Sacramento- The Consumer Products Safety Commission, the CDF's State Fire Marshal and fire chiefs from the five fire districts in the Sacramento area will offer holiday safety messages and details on re-called holiday consumer items at a news conference next week. The demonstration will be held Wednesday, December 12 starting at 10 a.m. at the Sacramento Metro Fire Station at 2200 Park Towne Circle, Sacramento.

Topics will include:

- Ten Safety Tips to care for a holiday tree
- Warnings about recalled items that may still be for sale this holiday season
- Information about dangerous home heating devices
- Holiday candle safety
- Demonstration of safety releases for iron window bars
- Television Public Service Announcements on Holiday safety will be available to the media

All speakers will be available for interviews after the demonstrations. Fire officials will also be available for interviews in Spanish and Chinese.

###

Driving Directions

From Capital City Freeway

- Take Watt Avenue South
- Left on to Auburn Blvd.
- Turn right to Watt Avenue
- Right to Butano Drive.
- Left on to Park Towne Circle